

18/06/2019

Georgian Church calls for cancellation of 'Gay Pride' events in Tbilisi

The Patriarchate of Georgia this week called on authorities in the Caucasus country, even at the last minute, to cancel a so-called “gay pride” series of events in the capital of Tbilisi, which are set to begin on Wednesday.

The Patriarchate warned that certain quarters want to exploit a small group of LGBT activists for their own purposes - with one purpose being to destroy the Church's identity.