

Orthodox Christian Fellowship Announces Plans for College Conference 2023

BROOKLINE, MA — Orthodox Christian Fellowship (OCF), the official campus ministry of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States will hold its annual College Conference on December 27-30, 2023.

College Conference is an annual four-day gathering of college students from all over the country to grow in fellowship, dive deeper into their faith through speakers and workshops around the conference theme, worship together, and serve. College Conference takes place in two locations: East at Antiochian Village in Bolivar, PA, and Midwest at St. Iakovos Retreat Center in Kansasville, WI.

The 2023 Conference Theme, around which the keynote and workshop sessions will be based, is “Walk in the Light”. Workshop speakers at College Conference East include Fr. Gabriel Bilas, Fr. Nathaniel Choma, Georgia Mamalakis, and an additional speaker to be determined. College Conference Midwest will feature Fr. Seraphim Ramos, Abbess Ameliane of St. Nina’s Monastery, Fr. Justin Patterson, and Steven Christoforou.

Registration is open now through December 1st. Cost for College Conference (East or Midwest) is $385 per person until November 1st and $400 thereafter until December 1st. Registration includes food, lodging, and engaging workshops with great speakers. Scholarships are available for both conferences on a limited and first-come/first-served basis until November 1st. For details and conference registration visit <https://www.ocf.net/college-conference/>.
