

Bishop Heruvim tours cathedrals in eastern Croatia

The Serbian Orthodox Bishop of Osijek-Polje and Baranja, His Grace Heruvim, this week toured cathedrals under renovation or construction in his eastern Croatia jurisdiction, including the Cathedral church of Holy Great Martyr Demetrius in Dalj.

A Church delegation later arrived in the city of Vukovar, where the Cathedral of St. Nicholas had been previously confiscated, only to be subsequently returned to the Diocese along with all its relics.

