

Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew on the National Anniversary of Greece

On the occasion of the National Day of Greece, His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, sent the Grand Syncellus, Archimandrite Iakovos to the Consulate General of Greece in Constantinople, where he performed the Divine Liturgy and the Doxology in the Chapel of Saint Savvas which is on the consulate premises, together with Patriarchal Deacon Father Evlogios, and also conveyed to the Consul General Ambassador Mr. Konstantinos Koutras, the congratulations and the well wishes of the Patriarchate and the local Omogenia.

Photographs: Nikos Papachristou / Ecumenical Patriarchate