His Eminence Metropolitan Cleopas of Sweden officiated at the baptism of Mr. Alexandros Odysseus which was conducted at the Cathedral of St. George in Stockholm.

Since the beginning of the year, the local Church in Scandinavia welcomed 15 young people through Baptism and 8 young people through Chrismation.

The young people have created a group to receive and welcome those young people who are interested in learning about Orthodoxy or joining the Orthodox faith. The Orthodox spiritual family is growing!
