

09/11/2023

Metropolitan Methodios participated in the Federation of Church Musicians Choir Conference

On Sunday, October 29, His Eminence Methodios of Boston participated in the Federation of Church Musicians Choir Conference, which was held at St. Spyridon Cathedral in Worcester. His Eminence gave a special medal to organist Anthony Rozak is for his dedication and service to the Federation and for his contributions to choirs in general over the past several years. Lee Condakes, a parishioner of Saint Demitrios, in Weston, was the guest Director for this year's conference which included 45 parishioners from throughout New England.

goarch.org