The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese Department of Greek Education is excited to announce the re-release of “Ta Ellinika Mou,” now available on Orthodox Marketplace.

“Ta Ellinika Mou” offers multiple levels, including, Pre-K through Level three, designed for teaching Greek Language to students in Greek Language and Culture schools within the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.

These books represent an international linguistic collaboration involving research teams from the University of Athens and the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese Department of Greek Education. They stand as the most sophisticated and comprehensive resources for Greek language instruction developed to date.

What makes this series exceptional is its pedagogical uniqueness. It was created to teach Greek to American children and underwent rigorous testing by experts in American classrooms during its development.
