

Patriarchate of Georgia calls on the parish to spend their vacation in Georgia this year

Patriarchate calls on the parish to spend their vacation in Georgia this year due to the current situation, – it is said in a statement released by the Patriarchate today.

“The recent developments can affect a number of ur citizens, who are involved in tourism sphere, since lot of them have got bank loans and they will find it difficult to pay off the debt. Therefore, we ask the authorities and the leadership of banks to provide the creditors, employed in the tourism sector, with available benefits. Moreover, we call on the parish to spend this summer in Georgia due to the current situation,” the statement reads.

– Source: IPN