Patriarchal Divine Liturgy was celebrated at the Church of Saint Nicholas in Alexandria

On 6 December 2023, His Beatitude Patriarch Theodore II of Alexandria and All Africa presided over the Divine Liturgy and delivered the Holy Sermon at the Church of St. Nicholas in Alexandria's Camp Chezar district. Alongside him, His Eminence Metropolitans Panteleimon of Naucratis, Chief Secretary of the Holy Synod, and His Grace Bishop Germanos of Tamiathus, Head of the Holy Monastery of Saint Savvas in Alexandria, co-celebrated the Divine Liturgy.

Towards the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy, the Patriarch performed a solemn memorial service dedicated to the souls of the crew of the Greek destroyer "Adrias". Notably, this vessel arrived at the port of Alexandria on December 6, 1943, with a missing bow, marking a significant historical event.

Following the liturgical service, a joyous gathering was held at the newly renovated

Church's monastic guest quarters known as the "Archontariki". Among the attendees were Mr. Ioannis Pyrgakis, Consul General of Greece in Alexandria, Greek Navy officers of the
