Museum of Fine Arts in Boston Presents “We are the Korai”

From the Consulate General of Greece in Boston:

On December 2, 2023 the Museum of Fine Arts (MFA) in Boston presented an original performance “We are the Korai,” by Emerson College students, featuring young women characters and their cry for justice and equality that will echo across time. The Kore the performance was presented in front of is on loan to the MFA by the Acropolis Museum and was officially presented to the New England public last June.
