Archbishop Nikitas at No. 10

On Tuesday 13th of December 2023, His Eminence Archbishop Nikitas of Thyateira and Great Britain, accompanied by Mr. Jason Charalambous, a Trustee of the Sacred Archdiocese of Thyateira and Great Britain, was warmly received at an Advent reception hosted at No. 10 Downing Street by the Rt. Honourable Rishi Sunak, Prime Minister of the United Kingdom. During the reception, His Eminence and Mr. Charalambous had the opportunity to exchange wishes and thoughts with other Christian leaders, Ministers, and Members of Parliament.

The event was marked by a spirit of shared anticipation and reflection characteristic of the Advent season, further enhanced by the delightful sound of children's carols, which added a festive and joyful atmosphere. The gathering concluded with an exchange of Advent blessings and a united hope for peace and goodwill.
