Archbishop Makarios: “Start a new page. Continue to allow people into your lives”

What is of great significance, is not what we do when we are undergoing our different ordeals, but how we behave when we will have gone through an experience of a person who has been wounded”, emphasises His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia, in the first video message of spiritual benefit for the new year, that he posted on the Instagram social networking site.

His Eminence Archbishop Makarios encourages everyone, when they go through some trial, not to give up and remain stagnant, but to try to get up and start a new life. “Start a new page. Continue to allow people into your lives. Continue to open yourself up; to give yourself to others.” He encourages among other things.
