Archbishop Elpidophoros Visits Bishop Mesrop During the Season of Armenian Christmas

On Thursday, January 11, 2024, His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America paid a special visit to His Grace Bishop Mesrop Parsamyan, the primate of the Eastern Diocese of America of the Armenian Church, to extend his warmest greetings on the joyous occasion of Armenian Christmas celebrated on January 6.

The visit was marked by heartfelt exchanges of warm wishes for peace, prosperity, and harmony among their respective communities. This momentous occasion not only strengthens the spiritual bonds between the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese and the Armenian Church, but also exemplifies the spirit of reconciliation and the quest towards unity that transcends confessional boundaries.

His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros was joined during this visit by His Grace Bishop Athenagoras of Nazianzos, Rev. Protopresbyter Nicolas Kazarian and Deacon Petros Gomez.
