Ecumenical Patriarch met with new board of the Educational and Cultural Association of Imbros

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew prayerfully attended the Divine Liturgy which took place on the Sunday after the Holy Epiphany, 14 January 2024 at the venerable Patriarchal Church of Saint George at the Phanar. His Eminence Metropolitan Kyrillos of Krini officiated at the Divine Liturgy from the throne.

On the same day, His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew met with the members of the newly elected Board of Directors of the Educational and Cultural Association of Imbros, whose President is Presbyter Chrysanthos Georgiou. The newly appointed board members paid their respects and sought the patriarchal blessing for the successful fulfillment of their duties and charitable mission.

In the afternoon of the same day, the Ecumenical Patriarch departed for Antalya to open the work of the International Scientific Conference on “Paul the Apostle in Antalya. Memory. Testimony,” organised by the Holy Metropolis of Pisidia.
