

The opening of the new Greek National Tourism Organisation offices in Constantinople

On Wednesday, 17 January 2023, the Inauguration of the new office of the Greek National Tourism Organisation (EOT) in Constantinople took place. The sanctification of the waters service was conducted by the Hierarchical Superior of Stavrodromi District, His Eminence Metropolitan Andreas of Forty Churches. Also present for the opening was His Grace Bishop Benjamin of Tralee.

The Inauguration was attended by the Greek Minister of Tourism, Ms. Olga Kefalogianni, and the Consul General of Greece in Constantinople, His Excellency Ambassador Mr. Konstantinos Koutras.

Afterwards, the Minister visited to the Cathedral of the Virgin Mary, where she was welcomed by the board of trustees of the renowned Stavrodromi Community, and was guided by the Parish Priest, Father Dimitrios Magioglou.

vema.com.au